2026-2027 Pittock Mansion Society Board of Directors

Board Members are listed in alphabetical order by last name.

Charlie Adams

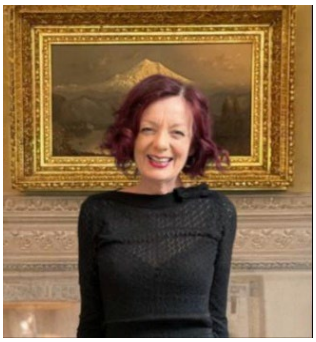
Charlie Adams is a small business owner, fifth-generation Oregonian, and Pittock descendant. He brings board leadership experience, including from the Portland Racquet Club and Riverview Cemetery, and financial acumen to the Pittock Board. His close ties to his family and his beloved city of Portland led him to volunteer for Pittock Mansion Society.

Todd Bauman.

Todd A. Bauman practiced law for 30 years with Stoel Rives in Portland, Oregon. His work focused on corporate securities and general corporate law. Before that he practiced corporate law in San Francisco and worked as legislative assistant to U.S. Representative Les AuCoin (Third District - OR).

Todd is a native of Southeast Portland. His grandfather, Frank Bauman, installed the electrical system at Pittock Mansion when it was built 1909-1914.

Todd and his wife Lori have three children.



Suzanne Barthelmess

Suzanne Barthelmess retired from the Port of Portland in 2017, after almost 30 years as their Claims and Insurance Manager. Suzanne is a Montana native and has a passion for history, architecture, and volunteering. She joined Pittock Mansion as a docent in 1974, shortly after moving to Portland, and has been actively serving in that capacity for 51 years. Suzanne has been a soprano with Oregon Repertory Singers since 1984, and keeps her organizational skills honed as their music librarian.

Audry Bond

Audry Bond has served Pittock Mansion for more than a decade. She is drawn to the Mansion as a testament to Henry Pittock's immigrant success story and civic involvement, and to the community of preservation-minded people it brings together. Looking ahead, she hopes to see a focus on diversifying revenue through grants and endowments and on sustaining engagement with city leadership.

Jeff Condit

Jeff Condit was raised in Ellensburg, WA, and he graduated from Willamette University Law School and now he is a partner at Miller Nash LLP. His interest in local history and architecture spurred him to join the Pittock Mansion board. Jeff has served on several arts and education boards, and he looks forward to contributing to the evolving story of Pittock Mansion.

Jack Dempsey

Jack Dempsey is President of Dempsey Public Affairs, a government relations firm working with the State of Oregon and the Oregon Legislature, primarily representing public health leaders, labor unions, and nonprofit organizations. Before starting his firm in 2012, he spent over a decade working in and with the Oregon Legislature as a staffer and in-house lobbyist.

Jack moved to Portland from his home state of Nebraska 30 years ago, and this year celebrated his 20th wedding anniversary with his wife, Grayson, who is a healthcare consultant and volunteer extraordinaire. Jack and Grayson have two beautiful daughters who attend Lincoln High School.

Michael Ecker

Michael (Mike) Ecker is a business development leader, currently at Melvin Mark, with a background in tech, events, and client relations. He is actively involved with OMSI, the Technology Association of Oregon (TAO), and Portland's young professional scene, as well as the food & beverage, and music industries. Mike was raised in Beaverton, and he is a University of Southern California Alum. Mike is passionate about revitalizing Portland, and outside of work he enjoys family life, golfing, and community engagement.

Anne Hanchek

Anne Hanchek earned her Ph.D. in horticulture, and retired as an Assistant Professor, Department of Horticultural Science, University of Minnesota. She had a 20-year career in plant sciences. She also has extensive volunteer experience, and her diverse interests range from gardening to gaming. On the Board, she shares her knowledge of organizations, horticulture, and volunteerism.

Jon Nelson

Jon Nelson is a Marketing Director at Oregonian Media Group. With over 15 years in marketing, including roles with the American Marketing Association and the National Safety Council, Jon is passionate about historic preservation and community engagement. He attributes some of this passion to his upbringing in a restored Victorian home. Originally from Riverside, IL, Jon now lives in St. Johns, and he especially enjoys gardening, inspired by Georgiana Pittock's legacy.

Peter Northrup

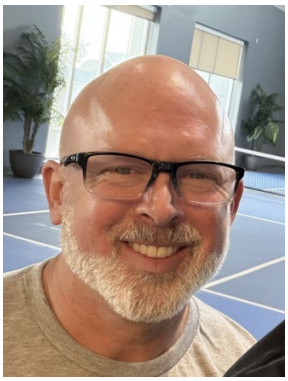
Peter (Pete) Northrup is the Founder & President of Northrup Corporation, a Portland-based insurance firm serving over 350 clients. He is a University of Puget Sound graduate, and he has been on committees at the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry (OMSI), as well as with other community organizations, making him a recognized presence in Portland's nonprofit and business communities.

Jeff Nudelman

Jeff Nudelman is a Portland attorney and business executive with four decades of legal and corporate leadership experience in Oregon's real estate, timber, and civic sectors. He is Vice President, Secretary, and Senior Counsel at Schnitzer Properties, and previously was a partner at Dunn Carney Allen Higgins & Tongue, an owner at Garvey Schubert Barer, and General Counsel at Parr Lumber Company. Jeff holds a J.D. from Lewis & Clark Law School and a B.S. in Political Science from the University of Oregon. He has served as president of the Portland chapter of the American Jewish Committee and president-elect of the University of Oregon Alumni Association, and he currently serves on the board of Friends of the Children.

Karla Pearlstein

Karla Pearlstein is a restoration expert with over 20 years of experience preserving historic homes and museums, including Deepwood Museum & Gardens in Salem, Oregon, Gamble House in Pasadena, California, and of course, Pittock Mansion. She has been involved with Restore Oregon and the Architectural Heritage Center, and she owns her own restoration business, Restoring History. Karla has been a Pittock Mansion board member twice before and she has served on the Pittock Mansion collections committee for many years.



Matt Preston

Matt Preston is a senior care executive with three decades of experience in clinical nutrition, operations, and business development across the nursing, assisted living, and home care sectors. He is Founder and CEO of Wayfinder Care Company, a home care franchise, and Holiday Divine, a holiday design business. Matt is a Licensed Nursing Home Administrator and holds a B.A. in Dietetics and Clinical Nutrition Services from Morehead State University. He has served on the board of the Metropolitan Senior Network and volunteered with the Alzheimer's Association, Friendly House, SAGE Portland, and Meals on Wheels. Matt is a holiday designer at Pittock Mansion and is the founding sponsor of the Mother's Day Tea.

Liz Tilbury

Elizabeth (Liz) Tilbury is a longtime neighbor, member, and major donor to Pittock Mansion. Formerly the Owner of Tilbury, Ferguson Investment Real Estate for more than 35 years, she is now a Director at Commercial Integrity NW and remains deeply engaged in the Portland community. She is a fifth-generation Oregonian with a historic family ranch recognized for sustainability, and she has served on the Portland Parks Advisory Committee and held leadership roles with the Nature Conservancy of Oregon, Friends of Trees, and Greenpeace Oregon. You might find her near Pittock on walks with her dog!

Donna Tyner

Donna Tyner retired from the Greenbrier Companies in 2023. She served as their Corporate Risk Manager and then as the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Lead. Her prior work experience includes Allstate Insurance Property and Casualty Adjuster, State of Oregon Insurance and Compliance Officer, State Risk Management Consultant, and Senior Risk Analyst for the Port of Portland. Donna graduated from Willamette University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science.
