

PITTOCK MANSION DISCOVERY TOUR

Photo courtesy of Michael Henley

Henry Pittock

Pittock Mansion was finished in 1914 and was the home of Henry and Georgiana Pittock and their family. Henry and Georgiana both worked to build Portland into the community we know. Henry was the founder of The Daily Oregonian newspaper. Georgiana cared for their family, managed their household, and worked raising money for charities. Both helped organize the Rose Festival.

Georgiana Pittock

Instructions for use:

You will need a pencil. Start at the location number you have been assigned, and follow your maps and instructions at each location. Make sure you visit all twenty locations. When you have completed all twenty of them, turn to map #3 and find your way down to the Social Hall.